APPEAL TO THE STUDENTS

In view of the rapid increase in the number of COVID cases in our University campus, particularly from the Students' community, I sincerely appeal all the Students attending online classes to consider for vacating the hostels from where they are staying and proceed to their native place. They may come back after the situation gets improved in which case, University will notify accordingly.

Hence, all the University students may please make a note of the above and cooperate with the University authorities by responding positively.
