With reference to the subject and references cited, all the Student groups/ forums/ organizations and stakeholders are hereby informed not to undertake any type of dharnas / protests/ rallies, etc. issue which may cause dislocation of work/inconvenience for functioning of the Administration. Any protests, if required, may be organized only at the designated places on the Campus, i.e. Gurbaksh Singh Maidan and should not lead to disruption of administrative/ academic activities. The students are further advised to submit a representation on each issue/grievance separately to the concerned authorities under intimation to the DSW to address the issue within a reasonable time on merit basis.

It is once again advised to comply with the norms/guidelines issued by the University from time to time and cooperate with the Administration for smooth and peaceful functioning of the University in the interest of the student community and other stakeholders.

Let us join to prove that this University is an Institution of Eminence.
