Appeal to the student community

This is an appeal to the student community in continuation of the previous appeal.

It is to be noted that unacceptable acts such as burning the banner containing the picture of a nationally respected leader, such as Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, and provocative writings/ messages against any groups/ communities/ religion will not be tolerated, and strict necessary action will be initiated. All the students are requested to maintain integrity in their behaviour.

It is to further remind that any information / communication about any programs/ events may please be posted on the notice boards outside every unit. Students are requested to refrain from writing any messages or posting any posters, etc., on the walls across the University and instead use the notice boards for the same.
